On December 14, 2016 Officers Sandoval and Officer mendozn
Along With other Chicago Police Officers Arrived At my residence At 1800 S. Hamlin, As Officers Sandoval and mendozn Approached my door my father was standing in the doorway, Officer mendozn Asked him who were All in the house, my father Stated my Wife is right there And my son and Brother in Law are on the couch, Officers mendozn Along With Sandoval then pushed pasted my father without being invited in the home And placed me under arrest And the other Officers With Sandoval went about Searching my home, They had no warrant for my arrest or no warrant to Search my home. The only tool they had was an investigative Alert Bst on false information stating I had Been identified in a Photo array when in fact I was not.
from what I understand an investigative Alert is a tool used by Police to Alert other police officers that an offender is wanted for a crime "Should that offender happen to be Stopped by other officers", and investigative

Alerts informs police officers "who come into contact with a suspect perhaps on a traffic stop" so even with the investigative alert it "did not" give Officers Sandoval and mendozia Authority to come to my home and Arrest me or Search my home as if they had A warrant for my Arrest.

So As it stands Officer Sandoval and mendozia acted in an illegal manner when they Arrived to my home to Arrest me with the investigative Alert, They had No wright to Search my home ether. So there for All of their actions was Unconstitutional.

The court may review my discovery for cases 17CR003801 And 17CR0093901 to Show that I was Not Identified from A foto array.
